DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election of Species I, Figures 1-6, Claims 1 and 22, in the reply filed on 14 April 2006 is acknowledged. Because applicant did not distinctly and specifically point out the supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election has been treated as an election without traverse (MPEP § 818.03(a)).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 1 and 22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over U.S. Patent No. 6,105,843 issued to Dollesin in view of U.S. Patent No. 6,502,845 issued to Van Vleet.

Dollesin teaches in Figures 1-9 and respective portions of the specification of a transportable utility carrier apparatus (36) for coupling to a transport vehicle (12) comprising:

an upper frame (38);

a recessed platform (see Figure 2, where the carrier is shown with a recessed platform defining an interior transport volume) connected to the upper frame;

a wheeled base (40);

Art Unit: 3618

a lift system (elements 41,42,43) interposed between the base and the upper frame for moving the wheeled base relative to the platform between a transport position (Figure 2) and a freestanding position (Figure 3);

a square male hitch tube (11) connected to the upper frame (Figure 7); and a receiver hitch (see where element 11 is located in Figure 7) mounted to the transport vehicle (12);

wherein the wheels (Figure 2) are spaced from the ground in the transport position;

Dollesin does not show a roller for the receiver hitch to ease insertion of the square hitch tube into the receiver hitch.

Van Vleet teaches that it is known in the hitching art to provide a roller (88) on a receiving portion (14) of a hitch assembly.

It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time of invention to provide a roller, as taught by Van Vleet, in the invention taught by Dollesin. One would have been motivated to provide a roller to provide easy extension and retraction of the components during hitching processes, and objective of the rollers taught by Van Vleet (see at least Col. 1, lines 55-60).

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Art Unit: 3618

U.S. Patent No. 6,802,441 issued to DuRant et al. and U.S. Patent No. 6,502,730 issued Johnson teach of transport carriers that have a hitches and can be selectively positioned between transport and a freestanding positions.

U.S. Patent No. 4,941,797 issued to Smillie, III and U.S. Patent No. 5,002,293 issued to Gottselig teach of scissor lift carriers.
